IKE DECRIES WAR SPECULATION

U. S. Cautious About Big 4 Talk, Ike Says

America Set To Try Anything If Confab Agenda Is Specific

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today he wanted to reiterate that the United States is ready to do anything to ease world tension.

He added, however, that so far as any top-level conference of the Western powers with Russia is concerned there would be many dangers involved in holding a conference without a specific list of topics to be covered.

The President's views, expressed at his weekly press conference, came after Senate Republican Leader Knowland (R-Calif.) had suggested a high-level big power conference this year to deal with European questions, such as unification of Germany.

He said ratification of the German rearmament treaties, now before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, would appear to make a German settlement "a reasonable goal to shoot at for this year."

"THE QUESTION of Germany would seem to lend itself to settlement more readily than the situation in the Far East," he said.

Knowland has demanded in the past that the United States avoid any East-West conference until the Soviet Union shows she wants to end the cold war.

Sen. George (D-Ga.) indicated in a separate interview that major East-West problems in Europe might be ripe for solution in a few months. He said a top-level meeting between Western leaders and the Russians should be held by this autumn. George is chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee.

But Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.) expressed doubt whether any big power conference could deal with just one sector of the cold war.

Nothing that he was meeting at the White House today with Democratic and Republican leaders of the House and with Senate leaders of both parties tomorrow, the President said the discussions would deal with the world situation generally.

He added that the meetings were arranged, starting a couple of weeks ago, with no specific purpose in mind.

Pike County Jury Indicts 3 Persons

WAVERLY (AP)—The Pike County Grand Jury yesterday indicted three persons in shootings.

James Walls, 75, was indicted for manslaughter, and his daughter, Mrs. Ethel Zirkles, 39, was indicted on a charge of shooting with intent to wound in the slaying of Mrs. Zirkles' husband Jess.

Sam Brown, 32, of Mt. Sterling, Ky., was indicted for shooting with intent to kill in the Nov. 20 shooting of Albert Kearns of Cincinnati.

The grand jury did not indict former Pike County Mayor Mitchell Osborn, charged with embezzlement of $6,296.

Meanderings By Wash Fayette

Many of you can recall when the first automobiles were operated in the city and county, and how quickly the horse and buggy, the "carriage with the fringe on the top" and horse drawn wagons passed out of the picture.

Today if a horse drawn vehicle passes along the street, it attracts more attention than a dozen of the highest priced automobiles.

Now the old type buggies and carriages are rapidly becoming museum pieces, even though the life of the automobile dates little more than 50 years.

There are still a few of the old horse drawn vehicles, including sleighs, which have been stored away and have been kept in rather good condition down through the years.

It has been months since I have seen a horse-drawn buggy in the city and many years since a carriage has used the streets.

Even the horse-drawn farm wagons which used to be so numerous have all but vanished.

So much for the wonderful age in which we are living!

Mother Awaits Word of Daughter's Fate

With her other three children, Mrs. Rita Gaca waits in her Detroit home for some definite word on the whereabouts of her 7-year-old daughter, Barbara, (left) who has been missing since she left home for school on the morning of March 24. Detroit police have received more than 500 tips on the case, but have turned up no tangible clues.

Weather Today More Springlike

CHICAGO (AP)—The nation's weather was a little more springlike today, with some warming and clear skies in most areas east of the Rockies.

The warming trend continued over the eastern two thirds of the country. Below freezing temperatures early today were confined to the Great Lakes region, upper Ohio Valley and northern New England.

Showers fell along coastal areas of Oregon and Washington while rain or snow was reported in the northern Rockies. There was some local cloudiness along the Gulf and Middle Atlantic Coast but elsewhere fair weather prevailed.

New Trial Sought In Contract Case

COLUMBUS (AP)—Att. Paul H. Herbert yesterday filed a motion for a new trial for four Columbus men convicted of conspiracy to defraud the Navy in the sale of inferior wiping rags.

The four, Benjamin Grossman, and his sons, Herbert, Arnold and Marvin Grossman, were convicted in federal court last Thursday. The attorney charged court errors. The Grossmans operate a paper and rag firm here.

Mother Planning To Deliver 8th Baby Herself, As Usual

TITUSVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Mrs. Ellerbe W. Carter expects her eighth baby in April. As usual, she plans to deliver it herself.

The dark-haired, blue-eyed woman, now past 40, has brought five of her children into the world, unattended. Her oldest child is 17. Her youngest is two.

Briefly, Mrs. Carter's system consists of taking a few whisky highballs to relax and having her baby. Then she resumes her house work. Mrs. Carter says she enjoys "the rapture of childbirth as nature intended it."

"There is no agony, no screaming pain. There is about a half a minute of acute discomfort, but not nearly as bad as having a tooth pulled."

Her husband, 71, a retired Army general, is a member of the city council and president of the Titusville Lions Club. He also heads a realty company.

Mrs. Carter read many books on childbirth before attempting

Solons Juggle Hot Potatoes In School Bills

Measures To Force 8 Basic Subjects, End Secret Groups Talked

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Ohio House and Senate yesterday tossed a couple of hot school potatoes at each other.

The House wound up with a much-amended bill on its hands designed to force Ohio schools to teach eight basic subjects. The Senate was tossed the issue of putting this in the state law of many years' standing which prohibits fraternities and sororities in public schools.

The Senate yesterday passed, 22-10, a House-approved bill known generally as the "three R's" bill. The bill went back to the House whence it started, for approval of three key amendments.

The bill to make expulsion from school the price of membership in high school fraternities and sororities passed the House, 109-13, after more than an hour of bickering. The measure now is in the hands of the Senate for final disposal.

The bill-trading act was completed after thousands of words of sound and fury which delayed adjournment of both houses far beyond their usual hour.

Scheduled today are floor votes on six bills—four in the Senate and two in the House. All are of limited interest.

IN THE HOUSE, only three bills which have received committee approval await a floor vote. Then the House cupboard will be bare. The Senate has 31 bills available for vote—a total which could provide daily calendars for the upper chamber for two weeks or more.

This situation appears to stem from the fact House committees are killing almost as many bills as they are approving.

While there may be room for argument that this situation may be of benefit to the state as a whole, it still does not provide fodder for the daily floor sessions of the House.

The original idea behind the required basic subjects bill before the Senate yesterday was to restore a requirement (part of the law before 1943) that the schools "shall" teach subjects like reading, spelling, history, arithmetic, science and the like.

In 1943, the law was changed to read that schools "may" teach such subjects.

The Ohio School Survey Committee, which spent 16 months studying Ohio school problems, recommended the Legislature look into the matter of required subjects. A bill introduced simply to change "may" to "shall" cleared the House without serious change.

But the measure ran head-on into the "wet-dry" issue in the Senate when representatives of Ohio brewers succeeded in forcing through an amendment to make the required teaching of the "harmful effects of alcoholic beverages" permissive rather than mandatory.

IN YESTERDAY'S bitter floor fight, a compromise amendment changed the bill in that particular to read that schools "shall teach the effects of the excessive use of alcoholic beverages."

Many attempts were made on the House floor to amend the bill to provide expulsion for members of high school fraternities and sororities. All were beaten badly.

The bill's sponsor, Rep. William L. Manahan (R-Defiance) pointed out many Ohio school administrators want teeth in the ban on such groups to help them enforce the law and declared the lack of an effective penalty is the reason fraternities and sororities flourish in face of the legal ban.

Under the bill which was recommended by the Ohio School Survey Committee, public school pupils would be given 30 days' warning to quit fraternities or sororities under penalty of expulsion for the remainder of the semester.

2 Boys Killed

NEW YORK (AP)—A tunnel dug by two 11-year-old boys in a Staten Island hillside collapsed on them yesterday. The boys, Dan Myers and John Percoco, were dug out within minutes but efforts to revive them failed.

Nonunion Workers Target Of Organization Campaign

CLEVELAND (AP)—The CIO Auto Workers Union today offered to put up a dollar for each of its 1½ million members to finance with other unions a drive to organize millions of nonunion workers.

Some union spokesmen have said that one of the organizing targets will be in small cities where unions so far have penetrated only to a minor degree.

The proposal was in a resolution the 3,000 UAW delegates are expected to adopt at their annual convention. It said that when the proposed AFL-CIO merger is accomplished every union should put up a dollar for every present member into a pooled fund to organize new members.

AFL President George Meany, warmly received here yesterday in his first address to a CIO union convention, said a revived organizing drive was definitely planned when the AFL-CIO merger is completed later this year. Meany has been designated to head the combined AFL-CIO organization.

Meany had nothing to say about how the new organizing drive is to be financed but he was receptive to another idea advanced by Walter Reuther, president of the CIO and the UAW, for a common strike fund subscribed to by all unions.

The AFL chief said he was "rooting" for Reuther to win his guaranteed annual wage plan in the auto industry this year and was confident that AFL unions would respond if Reuther asked for money aid. However, Reuther has said he will depend on a $25 million strike fund voted by the UAW.

"The job of building up the standards of life of the workers of America has by no means been accomplished," Meany said.

He commented there are some industries where a guaranteed year around pay plan may not be practical. He said while he knew nothing about the auto industry, "I'll take Reuther's judgment on it—that's good enough for me."

Meany said fears have been expressed that labor will have too much power under the AFL-CIO merger and it will be exercised politically. He said there certainly will be an increased exercise of union political power "not with the idea of running the country but of continuing the forward march of labor."

As Meany saw it employers are concentrating their efforts against unions in federal and state legislation. He mentioned the Taft-Hartley Law and various state right-to-work laws barring compulsory union membership.

"We didn't choose the battleground," he said. "If they can pass laws that can hamstring, weaken and destroy the trade union movement, then our place to defend ourselves is in the same halls where they passed those laws."

Reuther and other UAW officers were due to be reelected today at the convention.

Youngsters Give Cops Merry Chase

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Police of suburban Forward Township chased a car 15 miles at speeds reaching 90 miles an hour last night before being able to halt it.

Taken in custody on multiple charges were James Flemming, identified as the driver by police, and a companion, Victor Rerosana. "I was in for a surprise," said arresting officer Tony Piscitelli. "Neither one is five feet tall and they both weigh under a hundred. I don't know how the Flemming kid made it. He could hardly see over the wheel."

Flemming, 13, and Rerosana, 12, were turned over to juvenile authorities. The car was returned to Flemming's mother.

House Near Vote Delaying Corporation Tax Slashes

WASHINGTON (AP)—House leaders drove to wrap up congressional action today on a bill to postpone for one more year about $3 billion in corporation and excise tax cuts.

House passage of the bill, expected late in the day, would send President Eisenhower precisely the tax program he had urged—and little more than a day before the scheduled effective date of the cuts.

Dead for this year was a Democratic proposal to give everybody a $20 annual income tax reduction.

The House tied this income tax cut plan to the administration's bill to continue present corporation and excise tax rates. But the Democratic plan was rejected by the Senate. A Senate-House conference committee accepted the Senate version of the legislation.

But leaders in both parties are talking now of possible moves next year to cut individual income taxes. Next year will be election year.

Peace Cause Not Served By Talk, Belief

President Has No Data Indicating China Reds Plan Attack On Isles

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower spoke out today against too much speculation and talk about war. He said it doesn't serve the cause of peace.

Eisenhower also said at a news conference that he has no information indicating the Chinese Reds plan to launch an attack soon on the Nationalist islands of Quemoy and Matsu.

The President's remarks carried an implied rebuke to Adm. Robert B. Carney, chief of naval operations. Carney has been identified as the source of a prediction that the Communists would start striking at Quemoy and the Matsus around April 15.

Asked specifically if Carney would be reprimanded, Eisenhower said not by him.

Eisenhower said he himself was not ruling out the possibility of an attack in mid-April. But, he said, if anyone has information pointing clearly to such an attack, that person must have more information than the President of the United States.

AT THE OUTSET of the conference, a reporter told Eisenhower that Carney had been quoted as saying the Communists might attack Quemoy and Matsu next month. The newsmen went on to say he understood the President felt otherwise and didn't like Carney's expressing the view which he did.

Eisenhower replied that no one possesses a crystal ball to determine the chances of war. He said that for anyone to prophesy when war might break out is to assume an accuracy of information which never yet has been attained.

Eisenhower said that if he were going to make any comment on the situation it would be to say he does not believe the peace of the world would be served by talking too much in terms of war.

Under other questioning, Eisenhower again declined to shed any light on whether the United States might go to the defense of the two Nationalist offshore islands if the Reds do attack them.

Official U. S. policy, as expressed in a resolution passed by Congress earlier this year, gives the President authority to take whatever steps are necessary for defense of the main Nationalist bastions of Formosa and the Pescadores.

On Monday night, White House Press Secretary James Hagerty was reported to have said that the White House does not share the view that Communist China might attack in the Formosa Strait by mid-April.

He said the administration belief is that Red China has not built up enough air and supply bases to assault the coastal islands of Quemoy and Matsu.

Last Saturday, stories emanating from a private meeting between a group of newsmen and Adm. Robert Carney, chief of naval operations, said the Chinese Communists probably would attack Matsu around mid-April and that this could mean hostilities between the United States and Red China.

Eisenhower earlier had said he alone will decide whether to help the Chinese Nationalists if the Reds attack their offshore islands.

In general, Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles have said this country will fight if any such assault is directed at Formosa.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas said the Democratic Senate Policy Committee he heads discussed at a lengthy session yesterday the seemingly divergent reports. He gave no details. Some Senate Democratic leaders have indicated they felt it was time Eisenhower acted to prevent confusing statements from his administration.

Johnson, one of a number of Senate leaders invited to lunch tomorrow, said the Democrats would not present Eisenhower "with any ultimatum in the field of foreign policy."

If asked, he said, they will give the President their views but they don't take the position that "we should usurp or arrogate to ourselves the President's constitutional responsibility in the field of foreign policy."

Contract Let For Paving Job

Route 70 To Get Attention Soon

Contract for resurfacing 8.34 miles of Route 70, from the intersection of the Eber Road to the north corporation line of Jeffersonville, was let recently to Blue Rock Paving Co., at the company's bid of $41,129.25.

The estimated cost of the project was $54,650.

The road is to be resurfaced with asphaltic concrete for the full distance.

Width of the paving is to be 20 feet, present width of the road.

It is expected that work on the project will be started about May 15 and completed within a few days.

Traffic is to be maintained while the work is under way.

When the project is completed, the road will be resurfaced from Washington C. H. to beyond the Madison County line; part of it was resurfaced last year.

The improvement is one of the major highway projects in the county this year.

Trailer License Warning Given

The trailer licenses for those using trailers in this county for habitation, are still giving the county auditor's office here some concern. With 31 licenses issued to date out at least 40 or more known to be in use, the county auditor's office believes that some trailer owners who have not applied do not appreciate the difficulties they face if they fail to secure licenses by April 1.

Those who fail to get such licenses are subject to a $50 penalty in addition to the $18 for a license. It is reported that a county-wide survey of the trailer situation may follow soon after April 1 if the auditor's office believes that some trailers are being used for living purposes without a license.

After reaching Chesapeake, Lombardo said, the man forced him to park on a dark street, then bound him with tape. The airman said he managed to free himself, then reported the case to Ironton police.

Three From Here To Be At Hearing

A delegation from the Chamber of Commerce here was in Columbus Wednesday with plans for registering opposition to legislation relating to municipal incorporation.

Robert Terhune, the president of the Chamber, Walter Morrow, the chairman of the all-important Area Development Committee, and Glen Allen, the secretary, were slated to appear at a House committee hearing in the evening.

The measure, which is being readied for introduction in the state Legislature in the near future, is to be opposed by the delegation from here because, as Allen expressed it, "incorporation of municipalities would be made too easy." They contend that, under the proposed measure, it would be possible for little clusters of people to incorporate their own town and then have to rely on nearby cities and the state to take care of normal services.

Will Eisenhower Continue To Hold Spotlight?

It is rather early as yet to expect the public to give very much serious attention to the presidential race which is certain to grow hot fairly early next year.

Some of the politicians however are doing their utmost to start the "pot boiling". Before long a good section of the public will be taking part in the usual controversies which will arise.

Up to this time it appears clear that President Eisenhower does not regard himself—or anyone else—as being an "indispensable man."

Recently when this subject came up at a press conference in connection with the 1956 general election, he said:

"Did you ever think what a fate civilization would suffer if there was such a thing as an indispensable man? When he went the way of all flesh, what would happen? It would be a calamity, wouldn't it? I don't think we need to fear that."

Republican strategists, however, with their fingers held to the prevailing political winds, take a somewhat different view. They find that President Eisenhower, personally, is far more popular than the party. And most of them seem to have come to the conclusion that their 1956 prospects, so far as can be seen today, would be rather dim without him at the head of the ticket.

One much read publication concisely sums up the current political situation in an article based upon the Gallup and other polls, and upon the conclusions of seasoned battlers in the political arena. On the GOP side, it is all Eisenhower.

According to the latest Gallup Poll, the President's popularity among the voters is close to its all-time high—71 percent of them approve his conduct of his office, as against 75 percent in September, 1953. His low point, 57 percent, was touched in November of last year. Among Republicans, 74 percent want him to run again. If he does not run, Vice President Nixon is the next favorite — but only 30 percent of the Republicans pick him.

On the Democratic side, the Gallup Polls show that Adlai Stevenson is also a favorite — 58 percent of the Democrats chose him, as against only 16 percent for Senator Kefauver, the second choice. There is considerable talk now about Averell Harriman being picked, as a result of his upset win in the New York gubernatorial contest. But a mere four percent of the Democratic voters polled chose him.

The most significant of the Gallup Polls pitted candidates against each other in theoretical contests. It showed that Eisenhower would defeat Stevenson now with 59 percent as against 41 percent of the vote (a substantially larger margin than was registered in 1952), and that he would overwhelm Kefauver, 64 percent to 36 percent. But Stevenson would take the measure of Nixon, with — 61 percent to 39 percent.

A while ago it was rumored that the President would not run—that he was determined to retire and enjoy life at the end of one term. Now the Washington consensus seems to be that he will run. The pressure on him to do so is terrific. When Republicans appraise the vote division and prospective candidates, they are led to believe that he is the only man who appears likely to win for them. There could, however be important new developments before the end of this year.

He's Fascinated By Failure

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — "Fortunately," said Stanley Kramer, "failure is just as fleeting as success."

Kramer, who once worked for $18 a week as a studio laborer, has produced 18 pictures in 8 years. Now only 41 years old, he is one of Hollywood's favorite success stories.

But Stan himself, one of the film figures whose passion for perfection often conflicts with their desire for the dollar, is fascinated by failure. He is perfectly aware of the price you often pay if you aim high—which is, you land a lot harder on your face if you miss and fall.

"That's part of the business," he said. "You have to learn to bounce. But once you have felt the deliciousness of failure—taken the sting, tasted the blood—you know it isn't really as bad as you feared."

Failure gives you a feeling of solidarity. When you climb back on your feet, you have a confidence that comes from surviving a failure. It's a confidence you can't get in any other way."

Kramer, a stocky man who seems driven by a brooding restlessness, is in a comfortable position at the moment to discuss failure. His "The Caine Mutiny" has been nominated for an Academy award, promises to become one of the top 10 boxoffice draws in cinema history. He expects his latest film, still to be released, "Not as a Stranger," based on the best-selling novel, to be even more profitable.

Behind him also lie such smash hits as "Champion," "Home of the Brave," and "High Noon."

"But at least half of my pictures only barely broke even or failed to do that," he said.

Stan doesn't feel a film necessarily is a failure because it fails to bring in a golden flood at the box office. Timing, he feels, has a lot to do with that. And proper promotion.

His own favorite, "The Men," dealing with paraplegic war veterans (it gave Marlon Brando his first starring role) came out during the Korean War an unfortunate accident in timing.

"But I think that 10 years from now it will still stand up as an honest picture," said Kramer.

His own idea of a failure is a film in which he feels he didn't really do as well as he could have. From now on he plans to turn out only about one picture a year.

"It takes a full year if you really hand tool a picture," he remarked. His goals are interior. He competes with himself.

"I want to narrow down the percentage of disappointment to myself with each succeeding job. There comes a point in every picture where you think it is the best you've ever done, and another point when you're convinced it absolutely stinks. The truth is somewhere in between.

"The frustration of trying for the best is that you can never hope really to succeed. But it does make you dig deeper."

Kramer is convinced motion pictures have a future only if they are regarded as art forms as well as an industry.

"As an art form there is no limit to them," he said. "But as an industry there is. Actually it is those who look on motion pictures only as an industry who do most to hold down their real money-making potential. They are shortsighted."

Stan is less than overwhelmed by some of the new gimmicks used as movie fan bait, such as mammoth screens. He deplores the tendency to confuse size with quality.

"My theory," he observed drily, "is that by 1960 they will pick a girl 11 feet tall to be Miss America, and the movie screen will be so large the only place you can show a picture will be in the desert."

Government As A Money Lender

By George Sokolsky

The government of the United States sure has gone in for lending money, according to the Hoover Commission. It controls 104 agencies, employing 40,000 persons and the total loans, guarantees, and insurance and contingent liabilities amount to $244,000,000.000 as of June 30, 1954. That amount is an indebtedness of the government of the United States until it is paid off. The national debt is presently $277,807,554,048. By any system of bookkeeping the current responsibility of our government is $522,807,554,048. This does not include obligations under Social Security.

The outstanding agency loans, insurance, guarantees and commitments are mainly as follows:

1. Aids to housing, $55,786,358,000.
2. Aids to agriculture, $8,643,092,000.
3. Aids to business, $2,875,710,000.
4. Aids to foreign governments $26,360,443,000.
5. Veterans Life Insurance, $44,097,912,000.
6. Insurance of bank deposits, $106,509,000,000.
- Total, $244,272,515,000.

Regarding Social Security (Old Age and Survivors Insurance), the Hoover Commission says:

"... this program is financed through payroll taxes imposed on both employers and employees. The receipts from these taxes are paid into a trust fund which constitutes a liability of the Federal government of about $21 billion on June 30, 1954. It is estimated that this fund will reach a maximum of about $65 billion in the year 2000 and will decline thereafter reaching $52 billion by 2020. Proceeds from the payroll taxes and interest on the trust fund will not cover all costs of annuities of OASI accrued to date. Estimates made by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare place the unfunded liability of the Federal government to persons now under the Old Age and Survivors insurance program at about $228 billion and for all retirement programs at about $265 billion."

The Hoover Commission analyzes the weaknesses of lending and guaranteeing agencies as follows:

- "1. The tendency of such agencies to expand their functions beyond their original purposes.
- "2. When the function for which such agencies were established has been completed, there is an inner impulse to continue when they should be liquidated.
- "3. There is a tendency to create activities which could be undertaken by private agencies.
- "4. In some of these agencies there are concealed subsidies.
- "5. Congressional policies which permit the making of loans or guarantees by such agencies to individuals or concerns without adequate equities.
- "6. The making of loans or guarantees without adequate premiums or fees or interest rates from beneficiaries out of which administrative expenses can be paid and reserves against losses built up.
- "7. Departmental lending or guaranteeing programs have a fatal attraction politically. Pressure groups, whether business, farmers, or veterans, often force the abandonment of the normal standards of prudence in the organization of these agencies which alone can assure the repayments of credits granted. Thus some of these operations practically become subsidies to a small fraction of the people from the taxpayer at large.

"8. Where easy money is obtainable from the government, financial integrity tends to deteriorate and windfalls and corruption frequently flourish."

Representative Chet Holifield criticized the Hoover Commission, of which he is a member, for its report. He started his statement:

"The commission report is so faulty in concept and method that I must object to it even though a few recommendations, standing alone, may have merit.

"By and large the recommendations in the report, if fully carried out would make it harder for American citizens to buy homes or to get loans for their farms or businesses."

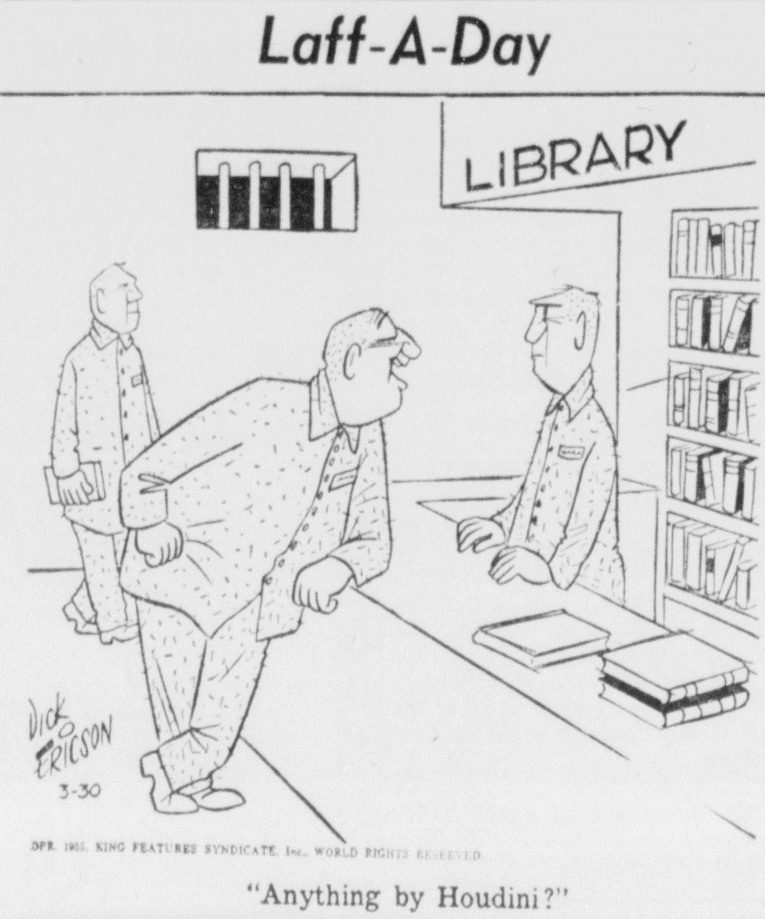

Obviously this cannot be true. The argument is nearly always made against each of the Hoover Commission's reports that they would reorganize the government by undoing some of the good work of the New Deal, particularly as regards the expansion of governmental agencies beyond the intent of Congress. This report needs to be read in detail to the power to socialize the United States.

Holland Planning Parley or Twins

OLIRSCHOT, Netherlands (AP)—This town of 7,750 population—including 63 sets of twins—is afraid of being forgotten when a new main highway bypasses it this year or next.

In order to keep on the map the town is holding a European congress for twins May 19-20. Thus far 300 sets of twins have said they will participate and 1,000 are hoped for.

A European convention of twins is planned in Olirschot every two years. Prizes will be awarded the best-natured twins, the oldest, the most musical—and to the pair least resembling each other.

Don't Rub Your Eye If Something In It

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

One has a natural tendency to rub the eye the moment a speck of dirt or some other foreign material flies into it.

Don't do it.

Rubbing Injurious

Rubbing will only help the particle get such a firm hold that it can't be removed without a knife or a magnet. This, of course, means a trip to your doctor.

I can't overemphasize the fact that it is important to have a foreign body removed from your eye quickly. If the measure I described yesterday fail to dislodge it, you need the professional attention of your physician or eye specialist. He can anesthetize your eye and probably remove the material with an astringent or boric acid solution, or perhaps he can wipe it off with a piece of cotton.

Other Measures

If these measures fail, he can usually remove it with instruments or a magnet.

An electronic magnet is now being developed for removing bits of non-iron metals not attracted by ordinary magnets, such as aluminum, brass, copper, silver and others.

It should be especially helpful to military doctors. During the Korean War, fragments of non-iron metals were responsible for about one-fourth of Army eye injuries.

Fragments May Rust

If you rub your eye in an effort to dislodge a foreign particle, this substance is likely to break up into several tiny fragments. If they are metallic, they can even rust right there in your eye. Then they'll have to be scraped out.

Cornual ulcers sometimes form, and the fragments may go so deep that you'll need surgery.

Usually, though, your physician or eye specialist can remove the particle painlessly.

Testing for Ulcer

After he does so, he'll want to check to determine whether an ulcer has formed. He may use a two per cent fluorescein solution on your eye. If an ulcer has formed, the solution will stain green. Then he knows you need additional treatment.

Keeping It Covered

He'll probably put antiseptics in your eye and order you to keep it covered for 24 hours or so. It's an inconvenience. But so is the loss of an eye.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

Mrs. C. E.: I have developed a severe itch on my head at the nape of my neck. There is no rash. What causes this?

Answer: Infections in the teeth, tonsils, or nasal sinuses, or other chronic infection may be a contributing cause for such trouble.

Sometimes the skin will itch following bathing. Nervousness is a common cause for this disorder. It may also be due to some allergic disorder.

You should have a careful examination by a physician so that if any infections are present they may be discovered and cleared up.

Oriental 'Honest Graft' Studied

By Ray Tucker

WASHINGTON — Only with great reluctance will Congress vote $2 billion for Asian military and economic aid, because of official admission that a vast amount will be pocketed by foreign government officials in Southeast Asia as "honest graft."

The only defense for tolerance of these dishonest practices on the part of our allies is that the grafters lead the fight against Communist expansion in that area. Foreign Operations spokesmen have told congressional committees that these conditions exist as "the custom of the country." They hope to wipe them out or minimize them. Meanwhile, they must wink at local rackets because the racketeers represent our main bulwark in the cold war.

GRAFT ABOUND — Thailand, for instance, is ruled and controlled by a small clique of politicians, policemen and military officers, from the top down to minor officials. They enjoy power as authoritarian as the Kremlin's. Nobody dares to challenge them save the Communists, whom they hate, if only because the opposition represents a threat to their pilfering.

These bosses, like Tammany grafters of old, demand a cut on every contract for construction and improvement financed by American money. They insist on majority ownership of private enterprises established to modernize production and distribution of food and clothing and beverages.

METHODS—Nor do they expect to pay for the stock; they require that it be handed over outright. They also stipulate that all key jobs be given to their hordes of relatives, regardless of their efficiency or experience. It is simply patronage.

These are not clandestine or hidden operations. Thailand officials make these requests in smiling and friendly manner in negotiations with American representatives. They see no reason why ancient and honorable methods of doing business should be disturbed by their Western benefactors. In a sense, it is part of the price we must pay for their resistance to Communism.

HIGHJACKING—In South Vietnam, the powerful religious sects refuse to disband their armies and integrate them with the government forces, unless accorded the expensive privileges they enjoyed under the French regime. For fear that they may overthrow our friends in power, we may have to accede to their costly demands. It is another form of highjacking Uncle Sam.

In Korea, the grafters resemble more closely the racketeers of Capone days. They drag down their profits from the disposal of about $100 million of surplus war materials.

When auctions are held, they browbeat legitimate rival bidders so that they obtain the goods at extremely low prices and sell at huge profits. If an honest merchant outbids them, he is forced to give them a 20 per cent rake-off as "protection." Since many of the racketeers are war veterans, they have public sympathy to such a degree that neither politicians nor police dare to interfere with them.

United States representatives have demanded that Syngman Rhee, South Korean president, clean up the mess. Otherwise, we shall sell the property elsewhere, although the sales were originally intended to rebuild the nation's economy.

CHINESE—Millions of dollars were wasted when we financed Chiang Kai-shek's regime during World War II. His relatives and friends sold for their own enrichment supplies, vehicles and weapons intended for use against the Japanese or Communists. Our military and diplomatic agents protested in vain.

About 30 per cent of college-age people in Utah are in college, but the percentage in Michigan is 17, and in the Carolinas, 10.

Browning Club Completes Interesting Year's Work At Annual Banquet

Browning Club, which is a literary club, and which takes its name from the famous poet, brought to a close another pleasant year when the members included several guests at the annual banquet held in the dining room of First Presbyterian Church Tuesday evening.

The banquet tables were beautifully decorated with clever "Easter Trees" holding colorful Easter eggs, and places at the table seating the officers and guests were marked with place cards decked with tiny flower motifs.

Miss Golda Baughn, retiring president, welcomed the members and guests and Mrs. Frank S. Jackson gave the invocation preceding the serving of a delicious three course meal.

Immediately following a delightful dinner hour, Mrs. D. H. Rowe paid a beautiful tribute to Mrs. Maggie Hopkins, a valued member who passed away during the past year.

Miss Baughn graciously thanked the officers and members for their loyal support during her term in office as president and presented the gavel to the president elect, Mrs. Marguerite Hodge, who announced her officers, chairman and co-chairman of the departments.

The members adjourned to the Church sanctuary, where Mrs. Frank J. Mayo, as program chairman, introduced Mr. James Lochary, supervisor of music in the Washington C. H. High School, who was accompanied by Miss Janice Smith in two beautiful vocal solos; the first and aria from the opera, "Don Giovanni", and a poem, "Bright as a Ring of Words," by Robert Louis Stevenson with lyrics by Ralph Vaughn Williams.

Miss Smith also was presented in a beautiful rendition of the "Sabre Dance" by Saschatchurian.

Mrs. Robert Hagerly was next presented in a well executed musical reading, author unknown, with the lyrics by Mr. Richard Powell, son of Mrs. Marguerite Hodge, played by Mrs. John P. Case.

Mrs. Mayo next presented Mr. and Mrs. George Sever, who showed pictures of the Holy Land, taken on their extended trip during the past year, which Mr. Sever narrates most interestingly.

Your School Report Card

By W. A. SMITH
(City School Superintendent)
Mrs. Robert D. Woodmansee visited the Cherry Hill School Wednesday, March 23, to show and explain slides to the Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Grades of pictures they photographed when her husband, Dr. Robert Woodmansee, was stationed in Germany with the army.

Along with the slides, Mrs. Woodmansee brought doll models which she brought back with her from Germany, depicting traditional German dress. These models were of adults and children.

It was further explained that since the American occupation the German people are now copying American dress. This did not happen for a few years after the war until some of the resentment against the Americans began to die down. It was further pointed out that most of the German people would hate to see the Americans leave.

Some of the most interesting pictures were taken in Nuremberg showing some of the destruction brought on by the war and also the tremendous rebuilding program being carried out now. One very impressive picture was of the recreation center which is now named "Soldiers Field". This is the place where Hitler used to interview his troops and where he claimed he would review his World-conquering army.

Nuremberg is called the Christmas City because it manufactures so many toys. In late summer they have their "Toy Fairs" where all the prospective buyers come to look over the merchandise. These are held in the wide squares of the city in the open with innumerable toys on display.

Many of the customs of the German people were described and it was pointed out that German women just started to use makeup since the advent of the Americans.

Another very interesting group of pictures included the town of Rothenburg, the oldest city of Germany. It is called the crossroad of the nation because it lies square ly in the middle.

Pictures were also shown of several scenes in Switzerland. They included the City of Berne, beautiful Lake Geneva and several of the Alp Mountain passes.

The last pictures shown were taken of France and the English channel. In France, the pictures were of the Arch of Triumph, Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, the Opera House and a French butcher shop. In the channel some beautiful spots of the White Cliffs of Dover were taken. Then nearing New York harbor, a picture showed the skyline of the city with the Statue of Liberty in the foreground.

This was not only an excellent geography lesson, but a wonderful and fruitful history experience.

LAND JUDGING CONTEST for members of the county's two FFA chapters took place Tuesday afternoon on the Arthur Schlacter farm on the Prairie Road. In the top photo, members of the Washington C. H. chapter check the soil in a four-foot-deep pit, while in the lower photo, members of the Jeffersonville chapter use yardsticks to determine the depth of the topsoil. The boys judged the land according to slope and drainage, erosion, texture and depth. Along with the two Vo-Ag instructors, H. W. Coffey of Jeffersonville and Dewey Huffman of Washington C. H., two representatives of the Soil Conservation Service were on hand to instruct the boys in the method of filling in rating sheets. These two were Robert Glass of the local Soil Conservation office and William Reese of the Columbus office. With Willard Bitzer, farmer near Bloomingburg, Glass and Reese judged performance of the boys on the test. Scores of the top four boys in each chapter will be averaged and the chapter whose average is higher will be declared the winner. (Record-Herald photos)

3 Men Guilty In Tax-Fix Investigation

NEW YORK (AP)—Henry W. (The Dutchman) Grunewald and Daniel A. Bolich, former assistant commissioner of internal revenue, have been convicted by a federal court jury of a $160,000 tax-fix bribery conspiracy.

Max Halperin, Manhattan tax attorney, was convicted with them.

After the seven-week trial, the jury acquitted two codefendants, Max Steinberg, former group chief in the upper Manhattan division of the Internal Revenue Service, and Harry T. Scherm, a former agent in the same office.

Grunewald, 62-year-old former Washington influence peddler, faces a possible maximum of five years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

Bolich, 54, a Brooklyn resident, faces a possible maximum sentence of eight years in prison and a $15,000 fine.

Halperin, 69, who lives in Manhattan, could draw up to 20 years in prison and $25,000 in fines.

The government charged that the five defendants received $200,000 in bribes to halt action in two income tax cases. Bolich was accused of quashing two possible tax prosecutions at the request of Grunewald and Halperin.

The indictment said the money was paid by the New York dress-manufacturing firm of Pattullo Modes ($140,000) and the Gotham Beef Co. ($60,000).

'Pressures' Hit By FCC Chairman

COLUMBUS (AP)—George C. McConaughy, newly confirmed chairman of the Federal Communications Commission, says he believes regulating agencies for public utilities must be free from outside pressures—public or private.

McConaughy, former Columbus attorney, addressed the opening session of the three-day convention of the Ohio Independent Telephone Assn. yesterday.

He said regulatory groups have three concepts to consider: (1) protection of the public; (2) insuring a fair return to a firm's investors, and (3) insuring that regulated firms have enough money to operate efficiently.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Complaints about the state racing commission warrant a legislative investigation, a Cleveland legislator says. Commission Chairman Zoltan Gombos said there is no need for an investigation, but "we have nothing to hide."

The Ohio House Elections Committee planned to hear new testimony next Tuesday in yesterday's move by Rep. Michael J. Crosser

Outlook Good For Racing Here

OCRA Stakes How Near Closing Date

George A. Steen, chairman of the speed committee for the Fayette County Fair, said harness horse racing fans were hoping for as many, or more, entries in the Ohio Racing Association stakes as there were last year as the April 1 closing deadline approached.

Lacking the figures immediately at hand, Steen said "it's a safe estimate that more than 100 were staked here last year through the OCRA." However, not all of them started; some dropped by the way, side early when they failed to come up to expectations; others did not stand the training grind and some were not in these parts at Fair time.

Four $1,000 stakes races are slated for the four-day Fair program here again this year — for 2-year-old pacers, 2-year-old trotters, 3-year-old pacers and 3-year-old trotters.

In the past, the OCRA stakes races have always had full fields here—frequently the entries were so numerous they had to be run in two divisions—and Steen said he could see no reason why this year's Fair would be any different.

Steen sees two reasons for so many horsemen to stake their youngsters in the OCRA and start them at the Fair here: (1) the reputation for well-ordered racing programs and (2) the early place it has in the season.

While the Hilliards Raceway is the first race meet on the OCRA circuit, the first Fair will be at Washington, C. H.

Other fairs on the circuit are at Van Wert, Xenia, Springfield, Greenville, Lebanon, Eaton, Kenton and Wilmington.

Salas Offered Youngstown Bout

CHICAGO (AP)—Jack Lakin, manager of lightweight L. C. Morgan of Youngstown says he'll put up $3,500 if Lauro Salas of Los Angeles will fight Morgan in Youngstown next month.

Morgan last night won his fourth straight victory at Marigold Gardens by stopping Carl Stafford of Chicago in the fourth round.

Salas is former lightweight champion who won the title from Champion Jimmy Carter only to lose it back to Carter.

Herb Score Shows Good For Indians

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — His spring training performance has tarnished none of the luster with which Herb Score came to the Cleveland Indians' training camp four weeks ago, tagged the brightest of the major leagues' 1955 newcomers.

The tall, blond lefty blanketed the Chicago Cubs through three innings yesterday, fanned four and gave one infield hit as the Tribe lost 9-7.

Today as the Indians and New York Giants play their final game in Arizona before heading eastward, Score has a record of nine scoreless innings of exhibition pitching, with 10 strikeouts, six walks and only three hits—two of them infield scratches.

A variety of injuries—torn finger nail, sprained ankle, bursitis of the knee—have kept Score from a normal number of starts. His record embraces only a trio of three-inning stints, two against the Cubs and one against the Giants.

If Musial, one of the game's best hitters whether he's in the infield or outfield, opens at first base he'll be paired off with the likes of Brooklyn's Gil Hodges, Cincinnati's

Ed Kluszewski and Milwaukee's Joe Adcock come all-star picking.

Stan played first base for the Cardinals in 1946, their last pennant-winning year, and again in 1947 but has been used there only in emergencies for the last seven seasons.

The Cards completed the shuffle later yesterday by optioning Joe Cunningham, regular first baseman the last part of the '54 season, to Rochester of the International League.

Cunningham and Tom Alston, lanky first sacker who flopped in his debut last year, had been competing for the infield spot in spring training.

Globetrotters Baffle All-Stars

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—The College All-Stars take another stab at stopping Walter Dukes tonight as they play the fourth game in their cross-country basketball series with the Harlem Globetrotters.

Dukes, who has had a big hand in the Trotters' 3-1 edge this far in the series, took charge of a second half drive last night in a 63-59 Globetrotter victory in Buffalo.

Dukes was high with 16 points while Ed Conlin of Fordham topped the collegians with 15.

Stan Musial Tapped For Infield Duty

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—It could be tough to pick the National League's first baseman for this year's All-Star Game with Stan (The Man) Musial tapped for infield duty again.

Eddie Stanky, St. Louis Cardinal manager, put Musial on first base in yesterday's exhibition game against the New York Yankees and admitted this will probably be part of his regular lineup.

If Musial, one of the game's best hitters whether he's in the infield or outfield, opens at first base he'll be paired off with the likes of Brooklyn's Gil Hodges, Cincinnati's

Sugar Wins Split Decision In Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP) — Sugar Ray Robinson, the man who gave up dancing in an attempt to regain the world's middleweight boxing championship, says he is going to keep right on the comeback trail.

That was Robinson's word last night after he had won a split decision over Johnny Lombardo, of Mount Carmel, Pa., in a 10-round bout in Cincinnati Garden.

It was the third bout for Robinson since he came out of retirement. He won one and lost one but there had been some doubt as to how serious his comeback attempt was in view of his failure to meet a commitment to battle George Small in Boston three weeks ago.

He claimed illness.

"If I have it, I will continue," Robinson said after last night's fight. "If I don't, I'll give up. This was the kind of a fight you have to find out what you can do."

He next meets Ted Olla in Milwaukee April 14.

Through the early rounds last night Robinson did not look good. But he came along late just when most of the ringsiders thought he

Bobo Missing OSU Spring Prep

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio State University's football squad will open spring practice Monday without fullback Hubert Bobo.

Coach Woody Hayes says that Bobo will not be allowed to participate in spring football. He will devote full time to his studies in order to be in good standing for next fall. If he works as hard on his books as he does in football I am sure he will be ready for the 1955 season.

Don Vico and Joe Trevisonno will be the leading candidate at the fullback position in spring practice.

Pharmacist Named

COLUMBUS (AP)—L. Charles Nicklaus of Columbus, who operates two local pharmacies, today was appointed a member of the state pharmacy board for a term ending March 31, 1960. Gov. Frank J. Lausche made the appointment.

BIGGEST CAR

of the low-price 3 is Plymouth

MORE LUXURY OUTSIDE

You'll be understandably proud of the long, low, flowing lines of your new Plymouth. Its 17 feet of shining steel make it the biggest car of the low-price 3 (3.4 inches longer than one car, 5.3 inches ahead of the other). And its glamorous new Full-View windshield, with swept-back corner posts, gives you wider, safer visibility than either of the "other 2" low-price cars.

MORE COMFORT INSIDE

Plymouth's greater over-all dimensions also mean more interior roominess. You get the widest front seat (by up to 2 inches), the greatest front and rear leg room (by up to 3.7 inches). Plymouth's door openings are higher and wider, too, permitting the easiest possible entry and exit. What's more, Plymouth's new trunk is mammoth—with far greater capacity than the "other 2."

SMOOTHER BIG-CAR RIDE

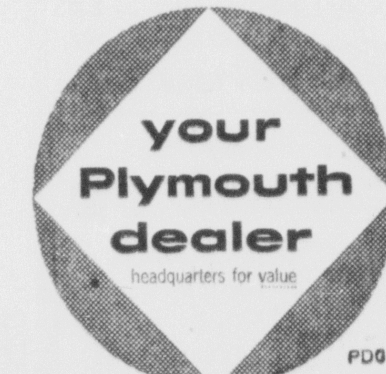

Only a truly big car like Plymouth can give you the luxury of a big-car ride. Plymouth's longer and stronger frame, wider rear springs and Oriflow shock absorbers provide the smoothest ride in the lowest-price field. And Plymouth's great new 6-cylinder PowerFlow 117 gives you the smoothest, thriftiest performance. Another top engine: Plymouth's new 167-hp Hy-Fire V-8.

TODAY'S GARDEN-GRAPH

Reg. U. S. Patent Office

Right Start for Roses

By DEAN HALLIDAY
Distributed by Central Press Association

GIVEN a good start, roses should live a long and healthy life. Pre-planting attention to the rose bed will pay off in better blooms.

If the soil is extremely poor, dig out the bed to a depth of 12 to 15 inches. The bottom six or eight inches should be filled with soil mixed with 25 per cent peat-moss and well-rotted manure or compost material. The balance of the soil should be mixed with 25 per cent peat-moss and well-rotted manure or compost material. The balance of the soil should be mixed with 25 per cent peat-moss.

If the location is not properly drained, a layer of gravel, cinders or broken stone should be placed under the bed.

If for any reason you cannot plant the roses the day they are received bury them in a trench.

Before burying the roses, remove the wrapping paper from about them, but leave the moss intact about their roots.

Roses will suffer if dry out. Even when planting, there is danger of injury to the roots by exposing them to wind and sun. To prevent such injury carry the bushes, a few at a time, in a pall of mud and water, as shown in the accompanying Garden-Graph.

Prune all extra long roots back to about six or eight inches from the main stem. A callus will form at each from which fibrous feeder roots will grow. Broken or injured roots should be trimmed out.

All pruning cuts above ground should be made just above an eye, as illustrated. The cut should be somewhat slanting, with the eye on the high side.

Two Fire Alarms Within Minutes

Firemen received two alarms within a few minutes Tuesday evening, the first being due to a burning tree on the Fayette County Fairgrounds and the second to a short in the wiring of a house on East Temple Street.

The tree on the Fairgrounds was located not far from the horse barns, and was so badly damaged that firemen stood by and let it burn until it was consumed. It was early Wednesday morning when they left the scene. No damage was done and no buildings were seriously threatened.

The first alarm was at 7:45 P. M. and the second four minutes later called firemen to the home of Rachel Morris, 906 East Temple Street, to look after the short circuit. No damage resulted.
